

Mayo History Weekend 14th -16th October 2022

Friday	Hotel Newport	Free Event
7 30 p.m.	Planning for the second volume of the book “ Newport 300 (1920 -2023) ”
8 30 p.m.	The development of the town of Newport under the land agency of James Moore between 1740 and 1765.	Joe McDermott

Cost of weekend seminar: €30
(including coffee breaks but not including lunch)

Book at Newport 300 History Weekend Tickets, Fri 14 Oct 2022 at 19:30 | Eventbrite

Saturday	Hotel Newport
10 a.m.	Mapping Mayo	Patrick Duffy
10. 45	The Archaeology of two small Mayo islands. The Inishkeas.	Brian Dornan
11.30 –12.00	Tea/Coffee Break
12.00	The Cathach of Colum Cille and the O'Donnells	Bernadette Cunningham
12.45	17th Century Mayo	Raymond Gillespie
1.30 – 2.30	Lunch
2.30	Fleeing from Famine and in Search of Posterity: James Hack Tuke and his Assisted Emigration Scheme from Co. Mayo in the 1880s.	Gerard Moran
3.15	Rails to Achill : A West of Ireland Branch Line	Jonathan Beaumont.
4 – 4.30	Tea/Coffee Break
4.30	Newport Poor Law Union and the Workhouse at Derryloughan Beg.	Breege Hyland
5.15	Quaker Relief in Mayo	Rob Goodbody

Sunday	Hotel Newport
11.00	John Pratt and the Medlicott family in Newport.	John C. Moore
11.45	The O'Donels of Newport.	Peter Mullaney
12.30	The threads of Newport's linen industry	Elma Brazel
1.15 –2.30	Lunch

3.00	At Burrishoole Abbey (weather permitting)
3.00	The architecture of Burrishoole Priory	Yvonne McDermott
3.45	Republican graves in Burrishoole	Sean Cadden/Michael Mulcrone/Peter Mullaney

Accommodation €120 per room/per night

<https://hotelnewport.ie/>